City of Rocky Mount website restored

Rocky Mount, N.C. – The city of Rocky Mount website, rockymountnc.gov, has been restored. The website had been experiencing an interruption since Thursday, Feb. 4, when its website host vendor, CivicLive, experienced a hardware failure.

No personal data was compromised during this disruption because hosting services do not store personal information.

About Rocky Mount: The city of Rocky Mount, located in the Coastal Plains of North Carolina, was incorporated in 1867 and lies in Edgecombe and Nash Counties. Rocky Mount is a two-time All-America City on the Tar River. Serving as the Gateway to Eastern North Carolina, the city's 875 employees serve approximately 58,000 residents daily.

The city's mission is to advance community well-being, safety and quality of life by delivering excellent public services and actively collaborating with the community towards a fulfilling and inspired future for its citizens. As a publicly-owned utility, the city of Rocky Mount is committed to safe, reliable service for its customers and operates in Nash and Edgecombe counties, providing customers with electricity, natural gas, water, wastewater (sewer), refuse, recycling and/or stormwater services.
