MWBE to hold quarterly virtual session

Rocky Mount, N.C. – The Minority Women Business Enterprise program will hold a virtual session entitled, “Added Value, #ContractReady” from 9:30 a.m.-11:30 a.m. on Friday, July 23.

Presenters will include city of Rocky Mount MWBE Coordinator Aaron Harris, who will share “Easy Bidding,” an interactive walkthrough of the city’s bid templates.

Chyna Green, who serves as the Project Diversity and Development Manager for Samet Corporation, will present “A Guide to Construction Projects: HUB Edition.” The presentation will include bidding procedures, minority participation and more.

Participants will also have a chance to meet city of Rocky Mount Purchasing Manager Candice Kirtz and staff, who will share about the types of contracts the city offers.

“We look forward to sharing these insightful presentations that will allow our MWBE community a greater understanding about the city’s processes as well as steps that will aid in the sustainability of their businesses,” Kirtz said.

Registration is free and available via <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/added-value-contractready-tickets-161151912709>.
