Local youth to perform productions of “The Little Prince”

Rocky Mount, N.C. – The staff at the Theater at the Imperial Centre for the Arts and Sciences is pleased to announce the return of the local summer production series. The 2021 production, “The Little Prince,” will be performed July 22-25.

The Little Prince is a production based on the book by Antoine de Saint-Exupery. It will include local youth ages 6-18, telling the story of a world-weary aviator whose malfunctioning plane strands him on the Sahara Desert. Artistic and Managing Director Brooke Edwards will direct the production, while music direction will be led by Benjamin Griffith and Shawn Leonard.

Showtimes are 7:30 p.m. July 22-24 and 2 p.m. on July 25. Tickets will be general seating and are available by visiting imperialcentre.org or calling 252-972-1266.

“We have such a talented group of young people who have come together to tell this important story,” Edwards said. “Our community will be blown away from these performances, and I think it is an important story to be telling right now. I think we have all learned, “What’s important is invisible to the eye.”
